OLD ENGLAND.

By ARGUS CENTOCULI, Inſpector-General of Great-Britain.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1749. [N°. 249.]

Quid verum atq; decens, curo & rogo, & omnis in hoc ſum.
HOR.

I HAVE little touching the Facts charged upon the Two Brrs in a late remarkable Pamphlet, which has been ſometimes complimented by the Town with the Patronage of the moſt diſtinguiſhed Head in Great Britain; and at other Times, as the Performance of the ſame noble Hand, which obliged the political World, ſome few Years ſince, with one of the beſt Pamphlets that ever was wrote; free, open, ſincere, and undiſguiſed! founded on Truth, and ſupported by recent Facts, well proved and atteſted. There are certain peculiar Characteriſtics in the Works of moſt Writers which point them out to the Obſervation and Notice of the Curious: However well the Examination may be wrote, yet there appears nothing of the Manner of the noble Hand laſt mentioned, in any Part of it; nor are ſome certain Matters advanced in it in any wiſe ſuitable to the Genius, Politics, and Politeneſs, of the great Stateſman under whoſe Umbrage it would fain be thought to come out into the World. But it muſt give every true Lover of his King and Country, a moſt ſenſible Pleaſure to find the faithful and able Servant of both vindicated, not only by the moſt ſanguine of thoſe who were impoſed upon to decry his Meaſures, but by all Parties and Diſtinctions of Men throughout the whole ſuffering Nation.

I mean not in the leaſt to detract from the Merit of this Pamphlet, which may be very excellent, tho' it may not have had the Honour to paſs thro' a noble Hand: But I could have wiſhed a certain high Character in it had been touched with more Tenderneſs, as he appears to have been worſe treated by the Brs than any other Perſon whatſoever, if we except his th and his ro. The Facts charged upon the Brs would have gone down much better, and been the eaſier credited, had the Author's Imputation upon that gallant Youth been omitted or better founded.

I muſt own, that I am one of thoſe that can't fall in implicitly with the Author as to the Conduct, Views, and Tranſactions, of the Brs; who, according to him, appear to be two of the moſt conſummate Stateſmen that ever this Iſland produced; a Brace of Machiavels! wicked indeed, but completely politic! as they are made to form their Purpoſe in the very Depth of Underſtanding, and to purſue it ſteadily thro' a Series of Difficulties to a fixed Point, under the various Shapes of Proteus, and the unerring Influence of Minerva's Wiſdom! —— Deceiving Friends, amuſing Adverſaries, over-bearing and betraying their Mr, beggaring their Country, nurſing Rebellion for ambitious Views, murdering the War, and deſtroying us with a precarious inſufficient P*, have been frequently imputed to the Brs in the Courſe of theſe Papers, and I think not ill proved; but that theſe Iniquities were the Effect of Forethought, or a Syſtem of Politics, I was very far from inſinuating, or even as much as thinking: On the contrary, I endeavoured to ſhew their Unfitneſs by Nature and Education for their high Stations, and their Inſufficiency for the Affairs of Gt, and particularly for the Conduct of the War; that they maintained their Poſts by Corruption only, as any petit Genius may do, who is in Poſſeſſion of the public Purſe; that Patch-Work Expedients, ſupported by well-timed Miſapplications of the national Treaſure in fortuitous Caſes and on lucky Events, were all the little Excellencies they could boaſt of, in the Courſe of their very weak and equally wicked An. I muſt therefore beg Leave, in Vindication of my former, conſtant, and invariable Opinion, to take Part with the Brs againſt the Examiner, ſo far at leaſt as to acquit them of all Malice propenſe in the Murder of our national Affairs; and am ſo far from accuſing them of any Scheme, or Forethought, in any of their Tranſactions, that, on the contrary, I verily believe they were entirely innocent of any Meaning at all; but that they made the beſt, that is the moſt, of all Occurrences as they happened to pour in upon them, to the utmoſt of their well known Abilities.

But as to the Author of the Conduct of the Brs vindicated, I think he has play'd the Haymarket-Bottle upon us as dextrouſly as his Predeceſſor did, on the polite Audience at the Little Theatre. He advertiſed as pompouſly and undertook as largely as he did, and has given us as little for our Money; for the labouring Mountain has only produced a Mouſe. He has been ſo far from falſifying any one ſingle Fact in the Examiner, that, on the contrary, he has, in the very Extremity of Ignorance and Stupidity, allowed and confirmed many. The Town, like the Bottle-Audience, were big with Expectation; eſpecially, when they found that the Progreſs of Warrants and Mittimuſes, at the Old Shop in Wob-ſtreet, were ſuſpended and the Juſtice himſelf miniſterially engaged; that the Publication of the advertiſed Novel of TOM JONES, the Foundling Rogue of Craveng, was poſtponed; and that Selim Slim was frequent in his Viſits within the Purlieus of *C*v*t-G*rd*n:* But what could any reaſonable Man expect from an Invalid of the Pen, who never made one ſucceſsful Campaign in his Life, on any Side of all the Sides he has been engaged in? But I muſt leave this Subject to give Room for the following Letters, which come from my North Britiſh Correſpondents, and demand their Turn in this Paper.

SIR,

IT ſurprizes ſome of your Friends and Admirers, that, as vigilant as you are in detecting and expoſing the groſs Inſtances of miniſterial Injuſtice and Corruption, the Caſe of one of the Controverted Elections in *N*th-B*t*n* ſhould have ſo long eſcaped your Obſervation and Pen. The World has all it's Eyes of Expectation bent on the Fate of Mr. *M*tl*d*, againſt whom a Gentleman petitions without any other Merit as to the En, or Chance to ſucceed, than what may merely ariſe from his Family Connexion with the vociferous and late converted Orator STRIX; who undertakes to ſupport him with the whole Weight of Ml Influence, in order to undo in one Place, what has been ſo fairly done in another, where Corruption had no Acceſs. The Particulars of the Caſe you have certainly heard of, and are therefore able to judge on which Side the Right lies; but it ſeems expedient, that the Returned M*b*r ſhould be remanded back for very obvious Reaſons, as he has been guilty of an unpardonable Offence, as well againſt the Jacobites as ſome other People; for tho' he is an Advocate by Profeſſion, yet, in the Time of the late Rebellion, he deſerted that lucrative Station, and officiouſly took up Arms in the Service of his King and Country, behaved bravely in that Service, was taken, treated cruelly, and impriſoned for two Months by the Rebels.—Think of this, Sir, and then tell me whether this Man can hope for Favour, and whether he can expect any thing leſs than to be given up, in order to make Room for the Orator's Uncle; whoſe Family's Attachment to Liberty and his Majeſty's Houſe, has been long notoriouſly eminent and diſtinguiſhed in the Records of Fame.

CORIOLANUS.

I am wholly unacquainted with the Merits of this Election; but am of Opinion, that if the Returned M*b*r has no better Pretenſions to Favour than what may ariſe from his officious good Services and Sufferings at ſo critical Juncture, I doubt his Friends and Relations will have no Need to deſpond of ſeeing him return ſoon in his private Capacity into his own Country; for Orators, as well within as without, as well above as below, are held in ſuch great Eſtimation among us at this Time, as in no wiſe to be diſobliged, or in the leaſt neglected; the ancient ORATOR of Clare only excepted, who interlards his Oratory with Puns ambiguous and Conundrums quaint, in no wiſe pleaſing to the Great nor conducive to a Vote.

A. C.

The next Letter comes from the ſame diſtant Quarter of the united Kingdoms, and humorouſly complains of an Abuſe of Revolution Principles, in levying a Tax againſt Law, for the Benefit of a little Urchin Secretary; who, contented with the Run of the Night at free Coſt, ſteals away and impounds People's Hats, 'till in Form of Money Pallas ſets the Captive free. But as I hear that Secretary Murray intends to offer his Service to officiate gratis in this Place, in Gratitude for the generous Penſion ſettled upon him for more important Services, I ſhall decline ſaying any thing further on this expiring Grievance.

SIR,

AS I am amongſt the Number of your Scotch Readers, and an Admirer of your Performances, I have often wiſhed, that you had a Correſpondent from this Corner of the Iſland, to inform you a little of the current Modes and Tranſactions, that we might have the Benefit of your cheriſhing or expoſing theſe according to their Merit.—This would not only promote your Paper here, but alſo be a Benefit to this Part of the united Kingdom; and as you have always appeared to be Patriot enough to promote any public Good, I doubt not but you would favour us once in three, four, or five Weeks, with ſomething that would chiefly concern Caledonia, were you to be furniſhed with proper Materials for that Purpoſe. Was this once eſtabliſhed, we ſhould look out for that which concerned ourſelves, with the ſame Sharpneſs that buſy Stockjobbers do for the foreign Mail in Time of War, to examine how the public Credit ſtands. I propoſe only, for Trial, to mention a Hint or two in this, which if you dreſs up ſo as to make it Sterling, and that I find by the Return of your Papers it is not diſagreeable, I do not deſpair of engaging thoſe of better Talents to undertake the Office of your Correſpondents.

I need not tell you the unhappy Differences that have ſplit this Nation for three Years paſt. Public Puniſhments and Examples will preſerve a Remembrance of theſe, after this Age is ſupplanted by another. One Effect of thoſe Diviſions has been the congregating of certain Clubs, dignify'd with Titles, which, for the moſt Part, are productive of the Principles which the Members adopt. The moſt conſiderable Body of theſe here, is known by the Apellation of the Revolution Club. This Society (whoſe Members all of them profeſs the Juſtice of the glorious Revolution, and engage in all Caſes to ſtand by his Majeſty with their Lives and Fortunes,—— provided the Danger be not very hazardous) is become pretty numerous, and the Candidates who ſue for Admiſſion undergo a certain Trial as the Teſt of their Fidelity, before they can be admitted. The other Day, a certain Gentleman, a ſtiff Revolutioner, wanting to be incorporated, preſented himſelf to the Brotherhood. The Sincerity of his Principles were not doubted of, and, being put to the Standard, he confirmed them by all the ſacred Ties that are uſual on that Occaſion, and was about taking his Chair to drink the loyal Healths, being all that he imagined remained of the Inauguration: But behold of a ſudded he is accoſted by a little meagre Wretch, who, by the Figure of his Countenance, appeared to be pretty ſharp ſet; he looked ſo wiſhfully, that our new Brother imagin'd that he lacked the brotherly Kiſs, which he readily adminiſtered to this little avaricious Officer. But tho' he receiv'd this Mark of the Candidate's good Breeding, he told him he was not to be kiſſed out of his Money; that, as Secretary to the Revolution Club, he had Half a Crown from each Intrant, for keeping the Muſter Roll of the Club, which was all his Fees other than drinking Pot-free every Club-Night. It happened unfortunately for the young Brother to have had only in his Pocket Three Shillings, two of which were computed to go towards his Proportion of the Reckoning: The odd Shilling he offered in Part, with a ſincere Promiſe of paying the Remainder quam primum; but the Secretary refuſed, declaring, that they never gave Credit to one another in that Club. Upon which the Gentleman ſteps to the Door, to look if he could fortunately ſpy any good Acquaintance that would help him out of this Dureſs. Having taken a Turn or two in the Street without his Hat, he at laſt was diſcovered by a Couple of his Acquaintances, who were a little ſurprized to ſee their Friend bareheaded at an uncomfortable Seaſon of the Year, and looking with ſome Concern. They immediately repaired to him, enquiring the Reaſon, but without making any Return to their Demand, he abruptly aſked the Loan of Half a Crown, which tho' either of them would willingly have accommodated him with, yet their Curioſity prompted them to refuſe, unleſs he acquainted them with the Occaſion of his odd Appearance, and the Purpoſe for which he wanted this trifling Sum. He ſeemed unwilling to diſcover, but as Neceſſity has no Law, he ſwore if they did not, he would be affronted, for that without that Sum he was refuſed to be admitted a Revolutioner. A merry Rogue, who was known to the honeſt Gentleman, and had drawn near by this Time, hearing the Occaſion of the Demand, ſaid, Tom be adviſed by me, throw them off, embrace Jacobitiſm, poor as it is; in one Reſpect, it reſembles the Grace of G—d, you have it without Money or without Price.—Poor Tom, tho' he would not agree ſpecifically to this Propoſal, bethought of not returning but that he had left his Hat behind him: However he ſoon got over that Difficulty as he imagined himſelf affronted, and even went home for a ſpare one which he had; that which he left having fallen to the Secretary's Share, which he now enjoys as his Property.

Now let the Conſequences of this Procedure of the Loyal Club be ſeriouſly attended to; and in order thereto, let it be conſidered, that this Town is the London of Scotland, as your's is that of England. Here it is, that all the young Gentlemen, benorth the Tweed, reſort for the Study of Law, Phyſic, or Mechaniſm; and ſuch as are poſſeſſed of any Competency of Fortune reſort alſo here to paſs a little Time, and acquire ſome Knowledge in what is called Gentlemanly Education; ſuch as Dancing, Fencing, attending the Stage, Balls, Aſſemblies, and the reſt of the Train of Levity in which the Youth of this Age are deſirous of being participant. By theſe Means, I may venture to ſay, that by far the greater Part of the Youth of Scotland centre in this Place; and tho' there is an annual Diſcharge of ſome of theſe from the Town to the Country, that again is equal'd by the Supply which the Country annually affords in Return. Theſe Youth have an early Deſire to club by themſelves, or rather to be introduced to ſome of the ſtanding Clubs in the Town, where they expect to learn ſomething new; and as their young Minds are apt not only to imbibe but to retain the firſt Stamp they are impreſſed with, I therefore leave the World to judge how expedient it is for the Eſtabliſhment of the preſent Government, and the Increaſe of it's Friends, that there is a Tax impoſed upon the Admiſſion to thoſe Societies whoſe Principles tend to ſupport it. The levying Money, without the Authority of Parliament, is for certain no Revolution Principle: Why then is permitted this pettifogging Secretary, when the Neceſſity of the State calls loudly for diſfranchiſing him? It would ſeem neceſſary that we had a Clauſe tacked to a Bill, for the free Admiſſion of all the King's Subjects into the loyal Societies, without Fee or Reward, even at the Expence of a Salary from the Government to the Secretary, if ſuch a Minion ſhould be abſolutely neceſſary. If this Grievance is not redreſſed, it is no difficult Matter to foreſee, that many, to ſave Expence, will reſort to the cheapeſt Market: I mean thoſe Societies where they can have Admiſſion without Payment of Secretary's Fees, and thoſe you'll have obſerved, the merry Wag in the former Part of this Paper calls the Jacobites; by which Means the Youth will be tainted, and Quid ſemel eſt imbuta recens ſervabit Odorem.

Their Principles will diffuſe themſelves in the different Countries where they reſort, and a World of Miſchief may befall us, which we may eaſier foreſee than prevent. Theſe Conſiderations will however I hope produce the deſired Effect, that the Legiſlature, or ſome Branch of it, will remove the Grievance by a proper Remedy, and by that Means put it out of the Power of ill-natured People to ſay, that Jacobitiſm is like the Grace of G—d, while Revolution Principles are linked to the Root of all Evil.

Cannongate of Edinburgh, I am your's,
22 Dec. 1748. A REVOLUTIONER.

LONDON.

Letters from Paris, by the French Mail of Tueſday, dated February 5, N. S. ſay, that Admiral Boſcawen had joined Commodore Griffin, and were before Pondicherry: and that they hourly expect to have an Account, that the Place is taken, and plundered. Theſe Letters ſay, our Fleet was before it in Auguſt laſt.

Wedneſday moſt of the Foreign Miniſters had a very grand Entertainment at Pontack's, on Account of the Peace being proclaimed on Wedneſday at Paris. And,

Thurſday at Noon Peace was proclaimed here, purſuant to his Majeſty's Royal Warrant, ſigned for that Purpoſe; the Ceremony of which was in the following Manner:

At 10 o'Clock the Officers of Arms aſſembled at St. James's Gate, properly Apparrelled, on Horſeback; when Proclamation of his Majeſty's Declaration of Peace was made with the uſual Solemnity.

From thence they marched to Charing Croſs, in the following Order, viz.

Guards to clear the Way.

Conſtables and Beadles, two and two, bareheaded with Staves.

The High Conſtable.

The Officers of the High Bailiff of Weſtminſter.

The High Bailiff.

The Grenadier Guards.

Knights Marſhals Men, two and two.

The King's Trumpets.

The Serjeant Trumpeter, bearing his Mace.

Purſuivants and Heralds, two and two.

Norroy King at Arms, having on each Side a Serjeant at Arms with Maces.

Garter Principle King at Arms.

The Second Troop of Horſe Guards, commanded by the Right Hon. the Earl Cadogan.

At Charing Croſs Peace was proclaimed a ſecond Time.

From thence they proceeded to Temple Bar, where the Officers of Weſtminſter retired. And within the Gate the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder and Sheriffs, perform'd the uſual Ceremony, at their Entrance into the City.

Then Proclamation was made a third Time at the End of Chancery Lane. Then at the End of Wood Street in Cheapſide, where the Croſs formerly ſtood.

And the Fifth and laſt Time at the Royal Exchange, during Change Time.

The Peace is by Proclamation, ordered to be proclaimed immediately in all the Cities and Market Towns in Great Britain; and alſo on Board his Majeſty's Ships of War.

A Petition has been preſented to the King in Council on the Part of ſeveral Natives of New England, who on the Reduction of Cape Breton, removed thither, and built themſelves Houſes, &c. deſiring Redreſs of the Loſſes they are likely to ſuſtain by the Reſtitution of that Place; of which proper Notice has been promiſſed to be taken.

It is ſaid, that his Majeſty's Bounty of 50,000 l. for the Relief of the diſbanded Soldiers and Marines, will be diſtributed in a few Days, and Proviſion made for their future Support.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order in Council a Proclamation, which was iſſued out Yeſterday, for the better apprehending and bringing to Juſtice all Highwaymen, Houſebreakers, Street-Robbers, &c.

Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales is again with Child, and far advanced in her Pregnancy.

A Grant has paſſed the Great Seal, unto the Rt. Hon. Henry-John Earl of Lincoln, and George Clinton, Eſq; his Son, commonly called Lord Clinton, of the Office of Comptrollers of all his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in the Port of London, during their natural Lives, or the Life of the longer Liver of them, in the room of the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount St. John, deceaſed.

We hear from Cadiz, that Admiral Reggio had broke two Captains, and ſome inferior Officers, for Miſbehaviour in the late Action with Admiral Knowles.

The States-General have given Orders for reducing the two Battalions of the Regiment of Scotch Highlanders, raiſed for the Service of their High Mightineſſes by Lord Drumlanrig, Son of the Duke of Queenſbury, to one Battalion of ten Companies.

Early Monday Morning a Battalion of the Third Regiment of Foot Guards, which lately arrived at Williamſtadt, landed at the Tower, and marched through the City to their Quarters in the Savoy; but the Men, who are to be diſcharged from the Regiment, were ſent to Quarters, for the preſent, at Fulham, Chelſea, and other Places in that Neighbourhood.

By the above Guards we have an Account, that a large Tranſport, in which were four Companies and a half of the Second Regiment of Guards, were unhappily loſt in their Paſſage from Holland to England, in the Sight of ſeveral other Ships, who could not give them any Aſſiſtance.

They write from Cheſter, that the following Paſſengers were on board the Neptune, Capt. Whittle, at the Time ſhe was loſt, viz. two Nephews of Col. Frazier; Dr. Danſer; Capt. Maccartney; Lieut. Lindſay, belonging to Capt. Ford's Company; Mr. Maccartney; Mr. Hamilton and his Wife; Mr. Stockdale and his Wife; Mr. Hayes and his Wife, and ſeveral other Perſons of Reputation. Several Trunks, Boxes, Portmanteaus, and Bundles are taken up near Hyle Lake, and on the Worral Shore; but none of the Bodies has as yet been thrown upon that Coaſt.

Mr. Cornelius, of Rydlan in the County of Flint, his Majeſty's Riding Surveyor, ſeized on Saturday the 20th of January, about twelve o'Clock at Night, in the Preſence of upwards of Sixty Perſons near the Bar of Cheſter, a Sloop of about thirty Tons, called the Duke of Cumberland, and upwards of fifty Caſks of Rum and Brandy, with other Goods; which Sloop comes from the Iſle of Man.

Laſt Sunday Night ſome Rogues tried to break into the Houſe of —— Thomas, Eſq; in Curſitor's-Street, Chancery-Lane; but the Footman being up, and hearing ſomebody at the Kitchin Window, ran up Stairs to his Maſter, and informed him; he having a good Heart, as moſt little Welchmen have, came down again, and taking his Violin, play'd Pritton's Strike Home! which put the Villains in ſuch a Fright, that they took to their Heels and ran away.

Saturday laſt the Cheſter and Warrington Coaches were robbed on Finchley-Common, by a ſingle Highwayman.

Sunday in the Afternoon Captain Sundon and his Son, of Bragg's Regiment, were robbed on Finchley Common, in a Poſt Chaiſe, by a ſingle Highwayman mounted on a Bay Gelding, of their Watches and Money; the Fellow was dreſſed very genteely, and behaved civilly.

Sunday a Fellow was ſecured juſt as he landed on the Bank-ſide, out of a Ferry boat, from the oppoſite Shore, by Mr. Sherman, a Tanner in Long Lane; being charged with robbing him the Night before, on the Grange, of his Watch and four Guineas. Mr. Sherman came to the Stairs, in order to croſs the Water, where he luckily caught the Robber, and being carried before——Clarke, Eſq; was by him committed to Jail. It is ſaid he has made great Diſcoveries of Gangs of Robbers who infeſt the Roads adjacent to this City.

Sunday about Noon a young Lad, of about 10 Years of Age, being on the Ice on the Canal in St. James's-Park, the Ice broke and he fell in; a Sailor who ſtood by, leap'd into the Hole, and endeavoured to ſave him but to no Purpoſe; however by draging for him he was found, and carried to St. Martin's Bone-houſe in order to his being owned. He had a red Coat on, a new Pair Shoes, and a Patch on one of his Cheeks.

The Trial at the Bar of the Court of King's Bench, on an Information againſt the Vice Chancellor of the Univerſity of Oxford, which was appointed for Monday next, the 6th of February, is put off till next Term; but no Day is yet appointed.

We hear that the Culloden Man of War, lately appointed a Guard Ship in the River Medway, is ordered to Portſmouth, on board of which we hear an Admiral's Flag will be hoiſted, in order to go to the Baltick, if any Diſturbance ſhould happen in the North.

They write from Falmouth, that the Counteſs of Leiceſter Packet is arrived there, with the Weſt-India Mail, in five Weeks and one Day, from Jamaica.——It is very remarkable, that ſhe departed from Falmouth on the 8th of October, and as ſhe called at the ſeveral Places to which ſhe was ordered, has made her Voyage in much leſs Time than has been known.

She brings Advice, that the Elizabeth Man of War, and the Conqueſtadore, taken by Admiral Knowles, had ſailed from Jamaica for England; but meeting with bad Weather loſt their Maſts, and were obliged to put back to the North Side of the Iſland.

Yeſterday ſe'nnight the Laura, Capt. Gracey, bound for Maryland, having on board 135 Convicts from Newgate, drove from her Anchors near Walmer Caſtle in the Downs, and was loſt, only 27 of the Convicts were ſaved, the reſt drowned or eſcaped; the Capt. and Crew ſaved, only the Cabbin Boy miſſing.

On Sunday the 15th Inſtant, a melancholy Accident happened at Cheſham in the County of Bucks: One Richard Charingtone, a Carpenter, who goes a Simpling, and beats in the Mortar for Apothecaries, being diſordered in his Senſes, went into the Church in the Time of Divine Service, and after declaring he had fought with and vanquiſhed Death, without more ado (being armed with Implements of Death) fell upon and murdered outright Mr. Simms, an old Man of Fourſcore, and the Coroner's Wife of Hertfordſhire; and before he could be ſecured, ſtabbed one Richard Richards, a Turner, in four or five Places in his Body, and much wounded and hurt one Thomas Climſon, a Butcher: Richards is ſince dead of his Wounds, and the Life of Climſon, who is under the Care of Mr. Holland, an eminent Surgeon of that Place, is deſpaired of.

Beware therefore of Counterfeits, and remember the Man without a Name, who lives in PAINTER'S-COURT.

N B I am authoriſed, by the Experience of many, whom I have ſerved with this Native Vegetable Acid, to recommend it as a much more pleaſant, ſafe, and efficacious Medicine than common TAR WATER, as being free from it's nauſeous Taſte, and noxious Qualities, yet poſſeſſed of all the Medical Virtues of Tar, which ariſe from a juſt Combination of the Eſſential Oil, and Native Sacharine Salt of the Vegetable, with the Univerſal Acid, and Elementary Water. It would look like Quackery to enumerate the ſeveral Caſes in which it has given Relief: I therefore content myſelfe, with obſerving that it has done ſurprizing Service in Loſs of Appetite, bad Digeſtion, Cholics, Low Spiritedneſs, deſperate Conſumptions, Spitting of Blood, and other internal Hæmorrhages, Weakneſſes of both Sexes, inveterate Scurvies, and eſpecially in that ſort called the Sea Scurvy; of which I have lately had ſome very extraordinary Inſtances.

Two Tea Spoonfuls in a moderate Glaſs of Water, make an agreeable Doſe, which may be taken twice a Day, Morning and Evening, or oftener; but beſt at ſome Diſtance from Meals. During it's Uſe Care ſhould be taken to avoid catching Cold, and partiecularly not to waſh with cold Water, for fear of checking Perſpiration, or repelling Eruptions.

It is ſold for 3 s. 6 d the Half Pint Bottle, with proper Allowances to thoſe who take a Quantity, at

My Shop, the Jar and Crown in Biſhopſgate Street, and, by my Appointment, at the following Coffee-Houſes, viz.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible CURE in the Univerſe for the Venereal Diſeaſe from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and to as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet, or Weakneſs, to happen on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Illneſs, attended with nocturnal Pains, univerſal Breakings-out, and all other the moſt exſeparated Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Saliva'tion, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this ſome Thouſands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſhed, without the Knowledge of the neareſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury may, by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, eaſy, and effectual Manner.

All ſuch, likewiſe, as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doſes of it, entirely free themſelves from all Suſpicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulneſſes of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Doſe than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this moſt noble Anti-Siphylicon is but ſix Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient, in moſt Caſes, to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which all Perſons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Mr. Radford is removed from againſt St. Clement's Church-yard, to Mr. Eglinton's at the Golden Spectacles againſt the Eaſt-End of the New Church in the Strand, London, where now the Grand Anti-Siphylicon is only to be had. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters anſwer'd, unleſs Poſt-paid.

Dr. R. NELSON's long-experienced COMPOUND,

Or never-failing Anti-Venerial Electuary, the like of which is not to be met with.

FOR the true Cure of Freſh Venerial Injuries, (and all the lurking Relics or Remains of old ones) how virulent or obſtinate ſoever they may be; for it immediately puts a Stop to their Progreſs, and entirely, and as it were, inſtantly, ferrets out, and carries off all the filthy poiſonous Infection, wears away the various Symptoms, and by Degrees cleanſes off the Running, and heals and ſtrengthens the Parts ſenſibly and firmly, without the too common Conſequences of leaving either Foulneſs, Gleating, or Weakneſs behind. This it does in a Way ſo regular and gentle both by Stool and Urine, and with a Doſe, each Time, ſo ſmall and pleaſant (the Quantity but of a Nutmeg) that the niceſt Perſons are as well ſurpriz'd as delighted with it, and the more, as it agrees with every one's Conſtitution, hinders no Buſineſs, nor gives the leaſt Suſpicion to the neareſt Relation.

In a very ſmall ſmall Space of Time (living temperately) it ridds away a mild CLAP, and thoſe more ſevere, according to their ſeveral Degrees of Malignity.

There never was, nor can be in the whole Art of Phyſic, contrived, any Medicine or Method capable of performing the Cure more certainly, more ſafely, or more ſpeedily, for it is ſo compleatly adapted to every Circumſtance of the Infection, and ſo fully anſwers the ſeveral Intentions of curing, that it is impoſſible it ſhould once fail.

But no more need to be ſaid of it, for it will recommend itſelf, inſomuch that no Perſon will ever after ſeek for Cure himſelf, or adviſe his Friend to any other Remedy.

Price 5 s. the Tin-Pot. Prepared only by the Doctor as aboveſaid, and left (ſealed up with Directions) at Mr. Corbet's, Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleet-ſtreet, and at Mr. Cook's under the Royal-Exchange; where it may be had by any Meſſenger, aſking only for a 5 s. Pot of the COMPOUND.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKNESSES,

SO deſtructive to the Conſtitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Moiſture or very Eſſence of Life, and inducing Conſumptions, Nervous Diſorders, &c. but to Poſterity alſo, inaſmuch as thoſe afflicted with ſuch Gleetings, if not wholy diſabled, as very many are, from propagating their Species, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, miſerable, and ſhort-liv'd Iſſue.

Theſe waſting Gleetings, occaſion'd by Self-pollution, exceſſive Venery, ſevere Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almoſt all Phyſicians and Surgeons to be ſo very difficult to overcome, are now ſo certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Reſtrictive Balſamick Electuary, that no one, how bad ſoever, need deſpair of being entirely ſet to Rights by it in a few Days.

It is from this its moſt extraordinary Efficacy, that ſo many Practitioners in Town and Country now ſend for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only ſure and infallible Remedy that can be ſafely rely'd upon in thoſe Caſes. The Price of this Grand Medicine is 6 s. a Pot, ſeal'd up, with a Book of Inſtructions, highly neceſſary to be read by all Perſons whoever were afflicted with any Diſorder of the Seminal Veſſels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, Mr. Radford removed from againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard, to Mr. Eglinton's at the Golden Spectacles againſt the Eaſt-End of the New Church in the Strand, London; where now this fam'd Balſamic Electuary is only to be had. Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balſamic Electuary. No Letters anſwer'd unleſs Poſt-paid.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained ſuch Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE Incomparable Drops, which for the aboveſaid Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicines were preſcrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obſtinate Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Boluſſes, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Preſcription (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety; as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, exceſſive Coition, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s 6 d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in theſe Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is of ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapſe, even in the tendereſt Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicine; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach that the niceſt Perſon is delighted with it.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops and paying 3 s 6 d.

To all Gentlemen, Builders, and others.

THOMAS ETTERIDGE, COLOURMAN,

(Son in Law to the late Mr JOSEPH EMERTON, who in his Life time chiefly managed his Business)

At the BELL and SUN, over-against Norfolk-Street, between St Clement's and the New Church in the Strand, London,

CONTINUES to Sell, in the same Manner his late Father did, all Sorts of COLOURS, ready prepared (at the lowest Prices) that any Gentlemen, Builders, &c may let their Servants or Labourers to Paint their Houses, only by the Help of a printed Direction, which he gives with his Colours.

He likewise sells to the Ladies all sorts of WATER COLOURS and VARNISH with every thing necessary for the New Japanning; and gives a printed Direction, for the doing of it to the greatest Perfection, to those that buy Colours. Also Italian Powder for cleaning Pictures, and fine Picture Varnish.

He deals only for READY MONEY

His House faces Norfolk Street, and not Arundel Street, in the Strand.

For the Immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,

Also also of IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of ever so long Standing,

The Famous and Inestimable PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest, and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BRING the only true and Infallible Cure for Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men in the Universe, and which at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Curricle of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the inmost Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright lively Disposition banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression.

Abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deem'd incurable Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, insomuch, that very many illustrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) in debted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even seems to keep back the Effects of Old Age it self.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 5s. a Bottle, with Directions.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

All judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses (whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Scarrings, Pollutio fui, or any other Cause whatever) and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain as that they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they may assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the most stubborn Gleets, Runnings, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble: as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative to all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, in an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it to very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprized at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and is ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whoever carefully reads will be compleat Master of its own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely extirpated or not.

Note, Mr Radford removed from against St. Clement's Church-Yard, to Mr Eglinton's at the Golden Spectacles, against the East-End of the New-Church in the Strand, London, where now this Balsamic Electuary is only to be had. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.

For the VENEREAL DISEASE.

THE shortest, safe, and regular Cure, this Day in the World, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree of it, by a Medicine as pleasant to take, and as easy in its Operation as it is effectual in its Cure; so that the unfortunate Patient gets suddenly and surprizingly well, without Distaste to his Palate, the least Disorder of Body, or any Confinement whatever. This is that great Remedy, now so well known and long experienced to be truly infallible, and is the Grand ANTI-SYPHILICON that Radcliffe and Garth used to say would totally extirpate the Venereal Disease from the Face of the Earth, were it but universally known, and properly taken. Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their cruel attendant Symptoms, it presently cures; and if taken in Time, even prevents their taking Place. It is a safe, gentle, and pleasant Family Purge, even for Children as well as grown Persons, in all Cases where Purging is necessary; nor can the deepest Scurvy, Rheumatism, Gout, Evil, or Leprosy, stand before it, but are pleasantly cured and thoroughly extirpated by it, as well as the highest and most inveterate State of the confirmed Venereal Disease; which, with all its most raging Symptoms, it soon eradicates, restoring Health, Strength, and Vigor to the Body. Those who once take it, will never have Recourse to any Thing else. One Pot in most Cases is sufficient for a Cure.

Price 6s. a Pot, sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by which all Persons may fully understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Mr. Radford is removed from against St. Clement's Church Yard, to Mr. Eglinton's at the Golden Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London, where now this Grand Anti Syphilicon is only to be had. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters answered unless Post-paid.

To Persons of either Sex,

Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been; nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success even to as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon finds all Numbness, Deadness, and shaking, or Relolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more, and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wished for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attennuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralitick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, so as never to return again; be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulence or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels, which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other almost innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions, at large.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived in the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, dost once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inasmuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearances they assuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms, of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and ease the whole Machine, and, as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.
